Momentum changed midway through the 3rd quarter when a Mansell pass was tipped by the O.P. nose guard which resulted in a “pick six”. Jack Sharp put the Quakers up 21-20 with a 5 yard run with 9 minutes left in the fourth quarter and the Legends failed to score on their last two possessions. This was the first loss at home since Coach Rupp took over as head coach in 2016 and ended up dropping the Legends into a three way tie with Bennett and Clarence at 4-2. Lancaster started their “revenge tour” with a rematch against Clarence, hoping to avenge their week #3 loss to the Red Devils. Lancaster jumped out to an early 7-0 lead with a 37 yard TD pass from Jason Mansell to Nick Castellana. After a punt pinned Clarence on their 1 yard line, Dan Empfield forced Clarence QB Nick Berchou to throw the ball away in the end zone which resulted in a safety and Lancaster took a 9-3 lead to halftime. The Legends made it a two score game with a 14 yard run by Mansell. The Red Devils refused to go away quietly exposing a busted coverage to make the score 15-10 early in the 4th quarter. A 10 yard run by Mansell seemed to put the game away but a late score by Clarence followed by a successful inside kick made the game too close for comfort until the Blackshirts held Clarence on downs to end the game.

LANCASTER FOOTBALL 24

Despite having their defensive line outweighed by almost 100 lbs on average, the Legends shut down McQuaid power offense early forcing the Rochester private school to change to their spread offense. The Lancaster offense was humming and put the Legends up 20-7 late in the first half. With three minutes left in the first half the Legends were driving to go up by three scores but a phantom hold, sack and then interception allowed the Jesuits to make the score 20-14 at halftime. Shawn Davis returned a punt 60 yards with 6 minutes left in the third quarter to put the Legends back in control at 28-17. McQuaid scored late in the 3rd quarter to make the score 28-25 but the Legends responded back by driving deep into McQuaid territory before fumbling the ball away at the Jesuits 15 yard line. With Cody Phillips out (broken ankle in 1st quarter) and Ethan Jurkowski out (badly sprained ankle two days before the game) the Blackshirts could not stop the McQuaid's final game winning drive.
